THE BOYAN ENSEMBLE

The Boyan Ensemble will again be visiting Bury on Tuesday 14 October at the Parish Church at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £18 (£17 for seniors) and are available from the Tourist Information Office and the Fusiliers Museum. Conditions in the Ukraine are now very austere and there were doubts about the choir's ability to visit

England not least because there was a possibility of the members being called up to fight. Finances too are dire. Opportunities for second jobs, which is how many of the ensemble manage, have been reduced because of stringent cutbacks. The singers need this tour more than ever, as it's their opportunity to earn some real money to compensate for the serious inflation in Ukraine.

Harrowing circumstances at home have not diminished their artistry and we can look forward to the awesome basses and haunting tunes for which, the Boyan Ensemble are famous, as well as the lyric soprano Valentina Ivanenko. Please make a note of the date in your diaries and ensure that you will not miss this musical spectacle. This year of all years the choir will have every reason to impress so come along and bring your friends.

Traditionally our Association has hosted members of the choir and we are again invited to open our homes. If you would like to be a host please contact Larysa Szalapaj telephone number 01706 825740 or 07974726616 or by email larysa.szalapaj@btinternet.com

Hosts will be offered a free ticket for the concert and are invited to a Jacobs join meal at the Blackburn Hall before the concert. On the following day after breakfast they are asked to provide their guests with a packed meal and return them to the coach for their journey to the next venue.

SCHORNDORF

Yvonne has been invited to the inauguration of Matthias Klopfer as Oberbürgermeister of Schorndorf for his second period of eight years in October. She will be accompanied by David and they look forward to representing BMCTA at the ceremony and meeting many friends during their visit.
